

Children's Aid Society

helps children and their families build stronger healthier lives through compassionate and professional services in York, Adams, and Franklin Counties since 1913.

Frances Leiter Center

located at 539 Lincoln Way East in Chambersburg, PA offers child-centered therapy, counseling, referral services, and community education.

The Lehman Center

located at 400 West Market Street in York, PA offers child-centered art therapy, 24-hour crisis nursery respite care, family advocate services, parent support groups and a crisis hotline.

The Nicarry Center

located at 343 Lincoln Way West in New Oxford, PA offers child-centered therapy, God's Closet, Healing Garden Greenhouse, Family Advocacy, and the agency's administrative offices.

Cornerstone Youth Home

located at 484-486 West Market Street in York serves students, ages 6 through 13, who are experiencing homelessness and transience. We provide long-term, stable housing and work with families to resolve issues relating to education, employment, health, and housing, disrupting the cycle of homelessness and transience in a safe, stable, restorative housing environment.
